

Episode 2 Show Notes

In this episode, host Nancy Christopher will talk with Mary Motiff, Bayfield County's Director of Tourism, and Jon Hamilton, of White Winter Winery, to learn about the many divine beverages White Winter has to offer, as well as local agritourism. Additionally, we will highlight the upcoming Bayfield Apple Festival and preview a couple favorite Bayfield County holiday happenings.

Bayfield Apple Festival

Bayfield's annual Apple Festival is a celebration of the autumn harvest and Bayfield's agricultural history. This year's festival is October 6-8, 2017.

White Winter Winery

Located in Iron River, Wis., White Winter Winery has been creating handcrafted meads since 1996. One of the truly authentic features about White Winter Winery is that they create their meads, spirits, and ciders by sourcing locally grown fruits. Mead Mead is an alcoholic drink made from honey, water, and yeast. The entire fermentation process takes approximately 12-18 months, from start to bottled and ready to enjoy.

The Winery

The best way to experience White Winter Winery is to visit the winery in person. White Winter offers tours, a tasting bar, and has a gift shop with everything from hats and handcrafted items to bottled varieties of each of their delightful meads, spirits, and ciders.

Agritourism

Agritourism is growing in popularity across Bayfield County as locals and visitors alike continue appreciate the value of locally grown produce and fresh, farm-to-table foods.

Holiday Preview
